7 Omission in the Civil List of M.R.'s name from supported by the fact that the Principal P.T.S.

17- I see no reason why his post of Principal of the Training School should not be included in his category of duties. All his reports should and must pass through all his qualifications required in a civil servant are included in that case. The Principal of the Training School should have a greater knowledge of land than his reports. As for proficiency in drill &c. he can pick it up in no time. Reports are also expected to know drill but they are being selected now from the Rev. Dept. as well. If this is done, the names have been easily been found in the list of civil servants.

18. As regards his relative place in his class this will have to be considered with reference to his fact as to when he would have been conferred in his regular rank of civil servant if he had not been appointed Principal of the Training School. The civil advantage of his confirmation is because an appointment in his class of civil commissioner and claim ranking over his other officers who have or would have been conferred much earlier than he as a civil post of civil commissioner.

As pointed out in the linked file in connection with the question of transfer of Mr. M. A. Singrachar to the general line there is only one permanent vacancy in the cadre. If he is permanently appointed to the cadre, he will be going above Messrs. C. Gopalakrishnan, S. Reuben, T. Venkataranayana S. N. Srinivasasankarasastri, M. S. Ramachandrarao & T. ## Final Note by the Third Member of Council.

Subject:-

Appointment of Mr. M. Rama Rao, Superintendent of Police, Bangalore, as Special Second Grade Magistrate.

On the confirmation of Mr. M. Rama Rao, Principal, Police Training School, in the new grade of Rs.250-50/3-450, with effect from 10th May 1918, his name was omitted from the list of Assistant Commissioners on the ground that the appointment of the Principal of the Training School was outside the cadre of the Civil Service.

2. The question whether Mr. Rama Rao should be included among Assistant Commissioners having come before Government, on a reference from the Comptroller, I expressed myself in favour of including the Principal of the Training School in the cadre of Assistant Commissioners. It was, however, decided in Council on 1st July 1920 that the matter should be brought up after orders on the Civil Service reorganisation proposals had been passed.

3. The Principalship of the School was in May 1921 reduced to the grade of an Assistant Superintendent of Police, with a duty allowance of Rs.50, and the Comptroller was requested to pass Mr. Rama Rao's substantive pay (Rs.300) in the grade referred to, pending separate orders of Government.

4. The question of Mr. Rama Rao's position was considered at the meeting of the Council held on the 25th August 1921, and the Council recorded the following resolution:-

"Mr. Rama Rao may be placed in the list of Assistant Commissioners who are provisionally permanent below the officer who got Rs.250 just before he got that pay. The excess of his pay over Rs.250 may be treated as absorbable personal allowance.

(Note:- He will not be reverted from the Assistant Commissioner's grade.)"

5. Before the resolution was submitted to His Highness for sanction, Mr. Rama Rao made a representation to the effect that he might be graded with Assistant Commissioners on Rs.300, or if that was not possible, he might be allowed to draw increments in his present grade. It is not possible to give him the grade of Rs.300 in the Assistant Commissioners line, as he will be superseding a number of officers who were senior to him in that grade before he was appointed Principal of the Police Training School; nor is it advisable to have any appointment in the grade of Superintendents in the Police line outside the Civil Service cadre. But, in order to avoid hardship to Mr. Rama Rao, it was proposed to offer him an appointment on Rs.300 in the Special Magistrate's line, and under the orders of the Dewan Mr. Rama Rao was consulted in the matter. He has expressed his willingness to accept the appointment of a Special Second Grade Magistrate as proposed.

6. The matter was again considered at the meeting of the Council held on the 8th September 1921, and the Council are of opinion that "in modification of the Council Resolution of 25th August 1921, Mr. Rama Rao may be appointed Special Second Grade Magistrate on his present pay of Rs.300 in the grade Rs. 200-50/3-400."

7. The opinion of the Council may be graciously approved.

The Comptroller's Office ruled that the Principal is not included in the cadre of Assistant Commissioners and the undersigned's name was removed from the list of Acting Assistant Commissioners. P.T.O. 88/873

S U B M I T T E D

The Undersigned was appointed permanently Principal, Police Training School, on 10th May 1918, and was given the grade of a Superintendent of Police, with a salary of Rs. 250 - 50/3 - 450 plus Rs. 50, duty allowance. He got the first increment on 10th May 1921 and now draws Rs. 300.

He learns that he is now to be made an Assistant Commissioner, provisionally permanent, on Rs. 250 with a personal allowance of Rs. 50.

He is an officer permanently appointed to the grade of Rs. 250 - 50/3 - 450, and cannot therefore be made a provisionally permanent officer in the same grade, three years after.

According to the present grade, he has to get

Rs. 350 on 10th May 1924,
Rs. 400 on 10th May 1927, and
Rs. 450 on 10th May 1930.

But, if as he apprehends the Government make him a provisionally permanent Assistant Commissioner, he will have to get the same grades three years later. (less Rs. 1800/-)

He prays that what has already been graciously given to him may not be taken away. He may be graded with Assistant Commissioners on Rs. 300, or if that be not possible, he may be allowed to draw increments according to his present scale, no matter if he is not made an Assistant Commissioner. His request is not without precedents; e.g., Mr. M. A. Singrachar's case,

Mr. Singrachar
Dt. Supt of Police
